- Professional and employment information (education and training)
- Your previous experience within clinical trials.
- Information regarding your business / work environment that helps the Company to determine suitability for future clinical trials of your site.

3. PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS OF THE PROCESSING AND NATURE OF THE PROVISION OF DATA

Company will always process the Data for a specific purpose and will only process the Data which is relevant to achieve that purpose. In particular, Company will process personal data on the following legal basis and for the following purposes:

- a. For fulfillment of (a future) contractual obligations (Art. 6.1.b of the GDPR).*
Data is processed to provide our services in the context of carrying out our contracts with Sponsors and for managing our business relationship with them and ensure the proper execution of services. The purposes of data processing are primarily in compliance with the specific service. You can find other details about the purposes of data processing in the relevant contract documents and terms and conditions.
- b. In the context of legitimate interests (Art. 6.1.f of the GDPR).*
Where required and without unduly affecting concerned data subjects' privacy interests or fundamental rights and freedoms, Company process the Data beyond the actual fulfillment of the contract for the purposes of Company's legitimate interests pursued directly by the Company or by a sponsor's request. These legitimate interests may include:
 - Performing clinical trial feasibility services including assessment of potential sites in order to gain a good understanding of the site-specific practices, experience, resources, equipment, patient access, enrollment capability, and other feasibility aspects that have an impact on clinical trial performance;
 - Helping Company to understand medical and scientific aspects related to indications of interest that would be beneficial in the potential set-up or conduct of a clinical trial;
 - Helping Company to learn more about sites, the capabilities and services they deliver, and other services they may be interested in delivering by conducting opinion research;
 - To evaluate an existing cooperation and extend it in future trials

Where the personal data we collect is needed to meet Company legal or regulatory obligations or enter into an agreement with you or is needed for legitimate purposes, if Company cannot collect this personal data Company will be unable to engage you as a site.

4. WHO HAS ACCESS TO DATA AND TO WHOM IT IS SHARED

The Data may be disclosed:

- a. within the SGS Life Science Clinical Research Group for the purpose of feasibility and site identification.
- b. to sponsors with a specific feasibility request fitting your sites' capabilities. When we do so we take steps to ensure they meet our data security standards, so that your personal data remain secure.

5. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER OF DATA

When Data is transferred, we ensure that we have taken steps to protect the Data before transfer.

SGS transfers Data across national boundaries within the SGS Group or outside the SGS Group only when:

- a. this is justified for business purposes; and
- b. safeguards have been implemented to ensure that Data will continue to be protected at a minimum with the same level of protection required in the jurisdiction of origin. To ensure this level of protection for your personal information, SGS may use a data transfer agreement with the third-party recipient based on standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission or ensure that the transfer is to a jurisdiction that is the subject of an adequacy decision by the European Commission or to the US under the EU-US Privacy Shield framework.

Any transfer of the Data to international organisations and/or non-EEA countries will take place according to one of the methods permitted by current legislation.

6. HOW DATA IS PROTECTED

The Company implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized, accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, misuse, disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of processing. These security measures have been implemented taking into account the state of the art of technology, their cost of implementation, the risks presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data, with particular care for sensitive data. In particular, adequate awareness, confidentiality undertakings and training are in place to ensure that Data is not shared or disclosed to unauthorised persons.

7. HOW LONG DATA IS STORED

The Data will be stored on paper and/or electronically for only the time necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, respecting the principles of limitation of conservation and minimisation referred to in Art. 5.1, letters c) and e) of the GDPR.

The Data will be kept to comply with regulatory obligations and to pursue the above-mentioned purposes, in compliance with the principles of necessity, minimisation and adequacy.

The Company may retain Data after termination of the contractual relationship to fulfill regulatory and/or contractual and tax obligations or in case of legal claims.

Subsequently, when the aforementioned reasons for the processing will cease, the Data will be anonymised, deleted or destroyed.

8. DATA SUBJECTS RIGHTS

Each Data subject can exercise the following rights referred in articles 15-22 GDPR by sending a request in writing to the Company at the above-mentioned contact details:

- To access: you can obtain information relating to the processing of your Data and a copy of such Data.
- To erase: you can require the deletion of your Data, to the extent permitted by law.
- To object: you can object to the processing of your Data, on grounds relating to your particular situation. In cases of opposition to the processing of data pursuant to art. 21 GDPR, the Company reserves the right to assess the application, which will not be accepted if there are legitimate reasons to proceed with the processing that prevail over your freedoms, interests and rights.
- To rectify: where you consider that your Data is inaccurate or incomplete, you can require that such Data be modified accordingly.
- To restrict: you can request the restriction of the processing of your Data.

- To withdraw your consent: where you have given your consent for the processing of your Data, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.
- To data portability: where legally applicable, you have the right to have the Data you have provided to us returned to you or, where technically feasible, transferred to a third party.

We strive to maintain good relationships and deal with your issues to your satisfaction. If you are not satisfied with Company's answer or processing of your Personal Data, please contact us via the methods listed in section 1 above. Should you not be satisfied with us or you believe that the processing of your Data is contrary to the legislation in force, you have the right to lodge a complaint to a supervisory authority pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR.

The Company is committed to keeping your personal data accurate and up to date. Therefore, if your personal data changes, please inform us of the change as soon as possible.
